

EXHIBITION PROGRAMME JULY - DECEMBER 2010

Tuesday 6 July –
Saturday 31 July

‘THE INFAMOUS MURDER OF THE SAILOR AT HINDHEAD’

The first public exhibition of these well-known paintings, previously owned privately, but acquired at auction in 2009 and generously donated to the Museum by the Winter family.

Tuesday 6 July –
Saturday 31 July

‘METOMORPHOSIS’

A group of local women come together in this exhibition, to explore the process of change within their chosen field of expression. In physical terms it is a change that is often associated with the development of creatures into adulthood; thus the cocoon is transformed into the butterfly.

Tuesday 6 July –
Saturday 31 July

‘CRIME AND POLICING IN SOUTH WEST SURREY’

Modern policing arrived in south west surrey in 1851 when the Surrey Constabulary was established. Learn about its formation, murder and major incidents in Waverley, various photos depicting Surrey Police’s long and varied history.

Tuesday 3 August –
Saturday 28 August

‘DRAWN TO THE WOODS’

Madeleine Allison presents a collection of drawings, paintings and textiles that distil some of the moments of silence, wonder and curiosity that occur in the forest.

Tuesday 3 August –
Saturday 28 August

‘PEOPLE AND PLACES’

by Roger Dellar

" You are invited to an exhibition to view the paintings of Roger Dellar ROI. RI. PS.

Many of the paintings were painted 'En Plein Air' (on the spot), some being of Haslemere. Others painted during his travels both home and abroad."

Tuesday 3 August –
Saturday 28 August

‘BARROW HILLS SCHOOL’

Mixed media art work by children age
between 7 and 13

Tuesday 31 August –
Saturday 2 October

‘CREATING A SUSTAINABLE HASLEMERE’

Transition Haslemere will demonstrate the work that the community is doing to make Haslemere a more sustainable town, with photos, information and artwork from schools, a community garden and an energy and transport workgroup.

Saturday 4 September -
Tuesday 28 September

‘WILD THINGS’

Looks at the International Year of Biodiversity. Highlights what the Museum doing to promote wildlife and improve habitats for less common animal and plant species and how we are working with other partners.

Saturday 4 September –
Saturday 11 September

‘HASLEMERE ART SOCIETY’

116 Annual Exhibition

Works in all painting mediums together with ceramics, sculptures and craft ware will be on display by the groups talented amateur and professional artists.

Tuesday 21 September –
Saturday 2 October

'ONE OF ONE HUNDRED'
A Photographic Exhibition

A chance to purchase the signed first editions of limited edition prints by nature photographer Becky Hill. Also samples of her natural family portraiture and wedding photography work

Saturday 2 October –
Saturday 16 October

'HASLEMERE CAMERA CLUB'

A special exhibition of photographs to celebrate the Club's 100th anniversary this year

Friday 15 October –
Saturday 30 October

'ARE YOU AFRAID OF BEAUTY?'

Four successful local artists believe that there should be more beauty, less sensationalism and less commercial blandness in the art world. Come and share their passion for the world around them depicted in photography, painting and ceramics.

Tuesday 5 October –
Saturday 30 October

'REG HORLOCK'

Local Photography exhibition

Tuesday 2 November –
Saturday 27 November

'A VERY SELECTIVE PERSPECTIVE'

Christopher Cole paints a miscellany of musical, dance, forest & coastal themes. An exploration of the human & natural worlds from a very selective perspective. The artist as mere observer, recording familiar truths with poetic interpretation and a subtle yet incisive touch.

Friday 22 October –
Tuesday 14 December

'CARDS FOR GOOD CAUSES'

Charity cards on sale from 10 – 4.30pm
Monday – Saturday

Tuesday 2 November –
Saturday 13 November

'HASLEMERE REMEMBERS'

To mark this year's Remembrance Day come and find out about the men of Haslemere who died fighting for their country in the First and Second World Wars.

Tuesday 16 November –
Saturday 4 December

'INSPIRATION FROM PLANTS FROM POLAND'

Two Surrey artists who have been working together over several years with very different approaches to paint, dye and stitch

Tuesday 30 November –
Saturday 4 December

'HISTORY OF HASLEMERE'

Explore many aspects of Haslemere's past from prehistoric, to more recent, times in our new exhibition.

Tuesday 30 November –
Saturday 4 December

'ST BART'S CHRISTMAS DISPLAY'

Art work created by the children of St Bartholomew's School to reflect the Christmas season

MUSEUM AND SHOP OPEN TUESDAY TO SATURDAY 10.00 AM – 5.00 PM
ADMISSION TO THE MUSEUM IS BY DONATION

ALL DATES AND CONTENT CORRECT AT TIME OF GOING TO PRESS