

100 Things to do at Haslemere Museum

1. Meet Arthur the Bear
2. Make a dinosaur roar
3. Touch a Jurassic ammonite
4. Watch the bees in the Observation Beehive
5. Get up close to the Ancient Egyptian Mummy
6. Open the butterfly drawers
7. Enjoy an Art exhibition
8. Walk the Ten Tree Trail
9. Search the Local History Database
10. Buy a gift or souvenir from the Museum Shop
11. Check the time on our sundials
12. Visit the clay puddle pond
13. Have a picnic on the lawn
14. Hire a room for a party or celebration
15. Explore the circular nature path
16. Try a gallery quiz
17. Enjoy the stained glass window
18. Become a Member
19. Look inside the doll's house
20. Come face to face with lions
21. Meet a Giant Japanese Spider Crab
22. View the living Plant Display
23. Adopt an Object
24. Visit the Archive Room
25. Come on a school visit
26. Discover a ha-ha
27. Get an object identified
28. Attend a Museum Explorers event
29. Do a jigsaw puzzle
30. Attend a garden tour
31. See a meteorite 4.6 billion years old
32. Use the Visit Haslemere information service
33. Make an appointment to research the collections
34. Listen to a lecture
35. Undertake work experience
36. Sit and relax in the gazebo
37. Explore with a back pack
38. Measure yourself on our owl height chart
39. See an old Haslemere Boundary Stone
40. Become a volunteer
41. Attend an event for families
42. Hold an exhibition
43. Visit the Library
44. Join the teenage group
45. Learn about life on Earth with our 12 hour clock
46. Pick up our programmes
47. Enjoy the view of the local landscape
48. Meet friends
49. Make a donation to support us
50. Enjoy the 18th century landscaped garden
51. Find the Top Ten Treasures of the Museum
52. Admire our weathervane
53. Write in our visitor comments book
54. Translate Ancient Egyptian hieroglyphics
55. Come to our Tea and Talk sessions
56. Say hello to a 3 metre crocodile
57. Pick up free local walks leaflets
58. Become a corporate patron
59. Enjoy our tapestry of Haslemere
60. Bring your under 5s to an Early Years session
61. Buy honey made by our bees
62. See our 'living fossil' ginkgo tree
63. Read our 'Want to Know More' booklets
64. Hold a conference or company event
65. Admire European folk art objects
66. Discover a coco de mer
67. See ancient objects from Pompeii
68. Purchase a copy of a photograph from the Archives
69. Explore with a torch or magnifying glass
70. Enjoy a Wellbeing event
71. Make a donation to our collections
72. Discover local history
73. See a real mammoth tusk
74. Read our 19th century toll boards
75. Stare into the jaws of a shark
76. Look back 500 billion years at the Burgess Shale fossil
77. Marvel at the moa skeleton
78. See our 35 million year-old insects in amber
79. Enjoy outdoor theatre
80. Find a blue starfish
81. Be amazed by the antlers of the extinct Giant Irish Elk
82. Gaze in wonder at the bone of a dinosaur
83. Greet the green turtle
84. See coins from the Roman Empire
85. Examine the variety of Stone Age tools
86. Hire a loan box
87. Visit the herb garden
88. Find out about the local Arts and Crafts Movement
89. Admire Ancient Greek pottery
90. See an ancient ichthyosaur or 'fish lizard'
91. Book on a pond dipping workshop
92. See the skull of hippopotamus
93. Dare to stare at a coiled cobra
94. Discover the gruesome story of the Hindhead gibbet
95. Admire the shell display arches
96. Get up close to a tarantula
97. Browse our second hand book trolley
98. Admire our awards cabinet!
99. Tweet, Facebook and Instagram about your visit!
100. Be inspired!

Subject to Availability